

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

CASE NO.

NELSON FERNANDEZ,

Plaintiff,

vs.

57 CONCEPTS LLC d/b/a LIVING GREEN FRESH MARKET,
a Florida limited liability company,

Defendant.

_____ /

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff NELSON FERNANDEZ, through undersigned counsel, sues Defendant 57 CONCEPTS LLC d/b/a LIVING GREEN FRESH MARKET a Florida limited liability company, and alleges as follows:

1. This is an action for declaratory and injunctive relief, attorney's fees, costs, and litigation expenses for unlawful disability discrimination in violation of Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. §§12181-12189 ("ADA"), as amended, and 28 C.F.R. Part 36. This is also an action for declaratory and injunctive relief, damages, attorney's fees, costs, and litigation expenses for unlawful disability discrimination in violation of the Palm Beach County Code of Ordinances, §15-57 ("Palm Beach Code").

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this case based on federal question jurisdiction, 28 U.S.C. §1331, and the provisions of the ADA. Plaintiff seeks declaratory and injunctive relief pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§2201 and 2202. In addition, this Court has supplementary jurisdiction over Plaintiff's state law claim for violation of the Palm Beach Code pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1367.

3. Venue is proper in this Court as all actions complained of herein and injuries and damages suffered occurred in the Southern District of Florida.

4. Plaintiff NELSON FERNANDEZ is a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida, is sui juris, and is disabled as defined by the ADA and ADA Amendments Act of 2008, 42 U.S.C. §12101 (“ADAAA”), and the Palm Beach Code, §15-37(10).

5. Plaintiff is and at all relevant times has been a visually impaired and physically disabled person who has been diagnosed with Relapsing-Remitting Multiple Sclerosis (“RRMS”). As a result of his disease, Plaintiff is currently paralyzed in approximately 80% to 90% of his body as a whole and only has very limited use of his left hand. Further as a consequence of his disease, Plaintiff has developed optic neuritis and is visually disabled, with complete blindness in one eye and very limited vision in the other eye. Plaintiff thus is substantially limited in performing one or more major life activities, including, but not limited to, seeing and accurately visualizing his world and adequately traversing obstacles. As such, he is a member of a protected class under the ADA, 42 U.S.C. §12102(1)-(2), the regulations implementing the ADA set forth at 28 CFR §§36.101, et seq., 42 U.S.C. §3602(h), and the Palm Beach Code, §15-37(10). Plaintiff further is an advocate of the rights of similarly situated disabled persons and is a “tester” for the purposes of asserting his civil rights and monitoring, ensuring, and determining whether places of public accommodation and/or their respective and associated websites are in compliance with the ADA, the Palm Beach Code, and any other applicable disability laws, regulations, and ordinances.

6. Because he is visually disabled, Plaintiff cannot use his computer without the assistance of appropriate and available auxiliary aids, screen reader software, and other technology and assistance. Screen reader software translates the visual internet into an auditory equivalent. At a rapid pace, the software reads the content of a webpage to the user. “The screen reading software uses auditory cues to allow a visually impaired user to effectively use websites. For example, when using the visual internet, a seeing user learns that a link may be 'clicked,' which will bring him to another webpage, through visual cues, such as a change in the color of the text (often text is turned from black to blue). When the sighted user's cursor hovers over the link, it changes from an arrow symbol to a hand. The screen reading software uses auditory -- rather than visual -- cues to relay this same information. When a sight impaired individual reaches a link that may be 'clicked on,' the software reads the link to the user, and after reading the text of the link says the word 'clickable.'...Through a series of auditory cues read aloud by the screen reader, the visually impaired user can navigate a website by listening and responding with his keyboard." Andrews v. Blick Art Materials, LLC, 17-CV-767, 2017 WL 6542466, at *6-7 (E.D.N.Y. Dec. 21, 2017).

7. Defendant is a Florida limited liability company authorized to do business and doing business in the State of Florida. Defendant owns, operates, and/or controls a chain of retail stores selling groceries, including the stores Plaintiff intended to patronize in the near future located in Pompano and Boca Raton, Florida.

8. Plaintiff's visual disability limits him in the performance of major life activities, including sight, and he requires assistive technologies, auxiliary aids, and services for effective communication, including communication in connection with his use of a computer.

9. Plaintiff frequently accesses the internet. Because he is significantly and permanently visually disabled, to effectively communicate and comprehend information available on the internet and thereby access and comprehend websites, Plaintiff uses commercially available screen reader software to interface with the various websites.

10. At all times material hereto, Defendant was and still is an organization that owns, operates, and/or controls a chain of retail stores selling groceries under the name “Living Green Fresh Market”. Each Living Green Fresh Market store is open to the public. As the owner, operator, and/or controller of these retail stores, Defendant is defined as a place of “public accommodation” within meaning of the ADA because Defendant is a private entity which owns and/or operates “a bakery, grocery store, clothing store, hardware store, shopping center, or other sales or rental establishment,” per 42 U.S.C. §12181(7)(E) and 28 C.F.R. §36.104(2). Defendant is also defined as a “place of public accommodation” under the Palm Beach Code because it is a private entity which owns and/or operates “[a] bakery, grocery store, clothing store, hardware store, shopping center, or other sales or retail establishment,” per Palm Beach Code §15-37(4)(e).

11. Because Defendant is a store open to the public, each of Defendant’s physical stores is a place of public accommodation subject to the requirements of Title III of the ADA, 42 U.S.C. §12182, §12181(7)(E), and its implementing regulations, 28 C.F.R. Part 36, and a place of public accommodation subject to the requirements of the Palm Beach Code, §15-37(4)(e).

12. Defendant also controls, maintains, and/or operates an adjunct website, <https://livinggreenfreshmarket.com> (the “Website”). One of the functions of the Website is to provide the public information on the locations of Defendant’s stores through a “store locator” feature. Defendant also sells to the public its merchandise through the Website, which acts as a point of sale for merchandise available in, from, and through Defendant’s physical stores (but not necessarily from the physical store Plaintiff intended to patronize).

13. The Website also services Defendant’s physical stores by providing information on available products, services, tips and advice, editorials, sales campaigns, events, and other information that Defendant is interested in communicating to its customers.

14. Because the Website allows the public the ability to secure information about the locations of Defendant's physical stores, purchase merchandise also available for purchase in and from the physical stores, purchase gift cards for use online and in the physical stores, arrange in-store pickups and home deliveries of store merchandise purchased online, and sign up for an emailer to receive exclusive online offers, benefits, invitations, and discounts for use online and in the physical stores, the Website has a nexus to, and is an extension of and gateway to, the goods, services, privileges, and advantages of Defendant's physical stores, which are places of public accommodation under the ADA and Palm Beach Code. As an extension of and service, privilege, and advantage provided by a place of public accommodation as defined under the ADA and the Palm Beach Code, the Website is an extension of the services, privileges, and advantages made available to the general public by Defendant at and through its brick-and-mortar locations and businesses. Furthermore, the Website is a necessary service and privilege of Defendant's physical stores in that, as a point of sale for Defendant's stores, it enables users of the Website to make purchases of Defendant's merchandise and gift cards that are available from and in its physical stores.

15. Because the public can view and purchase Defendant's goods through the Website that are also offered for sale in Defendant's physical stores, thus having the Website act as a point of sale for Defendant's products that are also sold in the physical stores, purchase gift cards to make purchases both online and in the physical stores, arrange in-store pickups and home deliveries of in-store merchandise purchased online, and sign up for an emailer to receive exclusive online offers, benefits, invitations, and discounts for use online and in the physical stores, the Website is an extension of and gateway to the physical stores, which are places of public accommodation pursuant to the ADA, 42 U.S.C. §12181(7)(E), and pursuant to the Palm Beach

Code, §15-37(4)(e). As such, the Website is a necessary service, privilege, and advantage of Defendant's brick-and-mortar stores that must comply with all requirements of the ADA and the Palm Beach Code, must not discriminate against individuals with visual disabilities, and must not deny those individuals the same full and equal access to and enjoyment of the goods, services, privileges, and advantages afforded the non-visually disabled public both online and in the physical stores.

16. At all times material hereto, Defendant was and still is an organization owning, operating, and/or controlling the Website. Since the Website is open to the public through the internet, by this nexus the Website is an intangible service, privilege, and advantage of Defendant's brick-and-mortar stores that must comply with all requirements of the ADA and the Palm Beach Code, must not discriminate against individuals with visual disabilities, and must not deny those individuals the same full and equal access to and enjoyment of the goods, services, privileges, and advantages as afforded the non-visually disabled public both online and in the physical stores. As such, Defendant has subjected itself and the Website to the requirements of the ADA and the Palm Beach Code.

17. Plaintiff is and has been a customer who is interested in patronizing, and intends to patronize in the near future once the Website's access barriers are removed or remedied, Defendant's physical stores (including the stores located in Pompano and Boca Raton), and to search for the brick-and-mortar stores, check store hours and merchandise pricing, purchase merchandise, purchase gift cards, arrange in-store pickups and home deliveries of in-store merchandise purchased online, and sign up for an emailer to receive exclusive offers, benefits, invitations, and discounts for use at the Website or in Defendant's physical stores. In the alternative, Plaintiff intends to monitor the Website in the near future as a tester to ascertain whether it has been remedied and updated to interact properly with screen reader software.

18. The opportunity to shop and pre-shop Defendant's merchandise, purchase gift cards online, arrange in-store pickups and home deliveries online, and sign up for an emailer to receive exclusive online offers, benefits, invitations, and discounts for use both online and in the physical stores from his home are important and necessary accommodations for Plaintiff because traveling outside of his home as a visually disabled individual is often a difficult, hazardous, frightening, frustrating, and confusing experience. Defendant has not provided its business information in any other digital format that is accessible for use by blind and visually impaired individuals using the screen reader software.

19. Like many consumers, Plaintiff accesses a number of websites at a time to help plan his store visits and compare merchandise, prices, sales, discounts, and promotions. Plaintiff may look at several dozens of sites to compare features, discounts, promotions, and prices.

20. During the months of March 2021 and June 2022, Plaintiff attempted on a number of occasions to utilize the Website to browse through the merchandise and online offers to educate himself as to the merchandise, sales, discounts, and promotions being offered, learn about the brick-and-mortar stores, check store hours, and check merchandise pricing with the intent to make a purchase through the Website or in one of the physical stores. Plaintiff also attempted to access and utilize the Website in his capacity as a tester to determine whether it was accessible to blind and visually disabled persons such as himself who use screen reader software to access and navigate company websites.

21. Plaintiff utilizes available screen reader software that allows individuals who are blind and visually disabled to communicate with websites. However, Defendant's Website contains access barriers that prevent free and full use by blind and visually disabled individuals using keyboards and available screen reader software. These barriers are pervasive and include, but are not limited to the following:

- a. Social media links are mislabeled as “link”;
- b. Next and forward buttons are mislabeled as “link”;
- c. Images are mislabeled as “link”;
- d. Location information is not labeled to integrate with the screen reader; only option available is “delivery” or “pickup” but does not specify which location;
- e. Menu is not labeled to integrate with the screen reader;
- f. Home page button/company logo is mislabeled;
- g. The “X” to close the Accessibility Tools window is inaccessible when navigating with a keyboard;
- h. The website has mislabeled links with no description;
- i. On the main page of the website, on the “Love Us? Let Us Know!”, the review buttons for TripAdvisor, Yelp, Google, and Facebook are mislabeled as “Rate Us” with no other description;
- j. The play video button is mislabeled as “link” and;
- k. Text throughout of the website is not labeled to integrate with the screen reader; the cursor skips the information and navigates to the nearest available link, button, or header.

22. Plaintiff attempted to locate an “accessibility” notice, statement, or policy on the Website that would direct him to a webpage with contact information for disabled individuals who have questions or concerns about, or who are having difficulties communicating with, the Website. When Plaintiff first visited the Website there was no “accessibility” notice, statement, or policy posted. When Plaintiff revisited the Website in April 2022, although the Website appeared to have a website enhancement widget/plugin installed, that widget/plugin still could not be effectively accessed by, and continued to be a barrier to, blind and visually disabled persons, including Plaintiff. Plaintiff, thus, was unable to receive any meaningful or prompt assistance through the “accessibility” statement and the widget/plugin to enable him to quickly, fully, and effectively navigate the Website..

23. The fact that Plaintiff could not communicate with or within the Website left him feeling excluded, as he is unable to participate in the same shopping experience, with the same access to the merchandise, services, sales, discounts, and promotions, as provided at the Website and in the physical stores as the non-visually disabled public.

24. Plaintiff desires and intends, in the near future once the Website’s access barriers are removed or remedied, to patronize one or more of Defendant’s physical stores and to use the Website, but he is presently unable to fully do so as he is unable to effectively communicate with Defendant due to his severe visual disability and the Website’s access barriers. Alternatively, as a tester using screen reader software, Plaintiff is unable to effectively access, navigate, and communicate with Defendant through the Website due to his severe visual disability and the Website’s access barriers. Thus, Plaintiff, as well as others who are blind and with visual disabilities, will suffer continuous and ongoing harm from Defendant’s intentional acts, omissions, policies, and practices as set forth herein unless properly enjoined by this Court.

25. Because of the nexus between Defendant’s retail stores and the Website, and the fact that the Website clearly provides support for and is connected to Defendant’s retail stores for its operation and use, the Website is an intangible service, privilege, and advantage of Defendant’s brick-and-mortar stores that must comply with all requirements of the ADA and the Palm Beach Code, must not discriminate against individuals with disabilities, and must not deny those individuals the same full and equal access to and enjoyment of the goods, services, privileges, and advantages as afforded the non-visually disabled public both online and in the physical stores, which are places of public accommodations subject to the requirements of the ADA and the Palm Beach Code.

26. On information and belief, Defendant has not initiated a Web Accessibility Policy to ensure full and equal use of the Website by individuals with disabilities.

27. On information and belief, Defendant has not instituted a Web Accessibility Committee to ensure full and equal use of Website by individuals with disabilities.

28. On information and belief, Defendant has not designated an employee as a Web Accessibility Coordinator to ensure full and equal use of the Website by individuals with disabilities.

29. On information and belief, Defendant has not instituted a Web Accessibility User Accessibility Testing Group to ensure full and equal use of the Website by individuals with disabilities.

30. On information and belief, Defendant has not instituted a User Accessibility Testing Group to ensure full and equal use of the Website by individuals with disabilities.

31. On information and belief, Defendant has not instituted a Bug Fix Priority Policy.

32. On information and belief, Defendant has not instituted an Automated Web Accessibility Testing program.

33. Defendant has not created and instituted an effective Specialized Customer Assistance line or service or effective email contact mode for customer assistance for the visually disabled.

34. Defendant has not created and instituted on the Website a useable page for individuals with disabilities, nor displayed a link and information hotline, nor created an information portal explaining when and how Defendant will have the Website, applications, and digital assets accessible to the visually disabled or blind community.

35. The Website does not meet the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (“WCAG”) 2.0 Level AA or higher versions of web accessibility.

36. Defendant has not disclosed to the public any intended audits, changes, or lawsuits to correct the inaccessibility of the Website to visually disabled individuals who want the safety and privacy of purchasing Defendant’s merchandise offered on the Website and in the physical stores from their homes.

37. Thus, Defendant has not provided full and equal access to, and enjoyment of, the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, and accommodations provided by and through the Website and in the physical stores in contravention of the ADA and the Palm Beach Code.

38. Further, public accommodations under the ADA and the Palm Beach Code must ensure that their places of public accommodation provide effective communication for all members of the general public, including individuals with visual disabilities such as Plaintiff.

39. The broad mandate of the ADA and the Palm Beach Code is to provide an equal opportunity for individuals with disabilities to participate in and benefit from all aspects of American civic and economic life. That mandate extends to internet shopping Websites such as the Website at issue in the instant action.

40. Defendant is, and at all relevant times has been, aware of the barriers to effective communication within the Website which prevent individuals with visual disabilities from the means to comprehend information presented therein.

41. Defendant is, and at all relevant times has been, aware of the need to provide full access to all visitors to the Website.

42. The barriers that exist on the Website result in discriminatory and unequal treatment of individuals with visual disabilities, including Plaintiff.

43. Plaintiff has no plain, adequate, or complete remedy at law to redress the wrongs alleged hereinabove, and this suit for declaratory judgment and injunctive relief is his only means to secure adequate and complete redress from Defendant's unlawful and discriminatory practices in connection with its website access and operation.

44. Notice to Defendant is not required under the ADA because of Defendant's failure to cure the violations. As to the Palm Beach County Code, Plaintiff has exhausted all available administrative remedies and brings this action after filing a charge of discrimination with the Palm Beach County Office of Equal Opportunity ("PBOEO") and waiting more than 180 days after the filing to commence this action.

45. Enforcement of Plaintiff's rights under the ADA and the Palm Beach Code is right and just pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§2201 and 2202 and the provisions of the Palm Beach Code, §15-56(a).

46. Plaintiff has retained the undersigned attorneys to represent him in this case and has agreed to pay them a reasonable fee for their services.

COUNT I – VIOLATION OF THE ADA

47. Plaintiff re-alleges paragraphs 1 through 46 as if set forth fully herein.

48. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §12181(7)(E), Defendant is a public accommodation under the ADA and thus is subject to the ADA.

49. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §12181(7)(E), the Website is covered under the ADA because it provides the general public with the ability to locate and learn about Defendant's stores, purchase merchandise that is also available for purchase from and in the physical stores, purchase gift cards for use both online and in the physical stores, arrange in-store pickups and home deliveries of in-store merchandise purchased online, and sign up for an emailer to receive exclusive online offers, benefits, invitations, and discounts for use both online and in the physical stores. The Website thus is an extension of, gateway to, and intangible service, privilege, and advantage of Defendant's physical stores. Further, the Website also serves to augment Defendant's physical stores by providing the public information about the physical stores and by educating the public as to Defendant's available merchandise sold through the Website and in the physical stores.

50. Under Title III of the ADA, 42 U.S.C. §12182(b)(1)(A)(II), it is unlawful discrimination to deny individuals with disabilities or a class of individuals with disabilities an opportunity to participate in or benefit from the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodation, which is equal to the opportunities afforded to other individuals.

51. Specifically, under Title III of the ADA, 42 U.S.C. §12182(b)(2)(A)(II), unlawful discrimination includes, among other things, "a failure to make reasonable modifications in policies, practices, or procedures, when such modifications are necessary to afford such goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations to individuals with disabilities, unless the entity can demonstrate that making such modifications would fundamentally alter the nature of such goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages or accommodations."

52. In addition, under Title III of the ADA, 42 U.S.C. §12182(b)(2)(A)(III), unlawful discrimination includes, among other things, "a failure to take such steps, as may be necessary to ensure that no individual with a disability is excluded, denied services, segregated or otherwise treated differently than other individuals because of the absence of auxiliary aids and services, unless the entity can demonstrate that taking such steps would fundamentally alter the nature of the good, service, facility, privilege, advantage, or accommodation being offered or would result in an undue burden.”

53. Defendant’s Website must comply with the ADA, but it does not as specifically alleged hereinabove and below.

54. Because of the inaccessibility of the Website, individuals who are blind and visually disabled are denied full and equal access to and enjoyment of the goods, information, and services that Defendant has made available to the public on the Website and in the physical stores in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12101, et seq, and as prohibited by 42 U.S.C. §12182, et seq.

55. The Website was subsequently visited by Plaintiff’s expert in April 2021 and June 2022 and the expert determination was that the same access barriers that Plaintiff had initially encountered, as well as numerous additional access barriers, existed. Defendant thus has made insufficient material changes or improvements to the Website to enable its full use and enjoyment by, and accessibility to, blind and visually disabled persons such as Plaintiff. Also, when the Website was revisited by the expert in June 2022, although the Website appeared to have an “accessibility” widget/plugin installed on its home page, that “accessibility” widget/plugin were tested and still could not be effectively and quickly used or accessed by, and continued to be a barrier to, blind and visually disabled persons such as Plaintiff. Defendant thus has failed to make reasonable modifications in its policies, practices, or procedures when such modifications are necessary to afford goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations to individuals with disabilities, in violation of 28 C.F.R. §36.302. The lack of a viable and effective “accessibility” notice, policy, or statement and the numerous access barriers as alleged herein and as set forth in the Declaration of Plaintiff’s expert, Robert D. Moody, attached hereto as Composite Exhibit “A” and the contents of which are incorporated herein by reference, continue to render the Website not fully accessible to users who are blind and visually disabled, including Plaintiff.

56. More violations may be present on other pages of the Website, which can and will be determined and proven through the discovery process in this case.

57. There are readily available, well-established guidelines on the internet for making Websites accessible to the blind and visually disabled. These guidelines have been followed by other large business entities in making their websites accessible. Examples of such guidelines include, but are not limited to, adding alt-text to graphics and ensuring that all functions can be performed using a keyboard. Incorporating such basic components to make the Website accessible would neither fundamentally alter the nature of Defendant’s business nor would it result in an undue burden to Defendant.

58. Defendant has violated the ADA -- and continues to violate the ADA -- by denying access to the Website by individuals such as Plaintiff with visual disabilities who require the assistance of interface with screen reader software to comprehend and access internet websites. These violations within the Website are ongoing.

59. The ADA requires that public accommodations and places of public accommodation ensure that communication is effective.

60. According to 28 C.F.R. §36.303(b)(1), auxiliary aids and services include “voice, text, and video-based telecommunications products and systems”. Indeed, 28 C.F.R. §36.303(b)(2) specifically states that screen reader software is an effective method of making visually delivered material available to individuals who are blind or have low vision.

61. According to 28 C.F.R. §36.303(c), public accommodations must furnish appropriate auxiliary aids and services where necessary to ensure effective communication with individuals with disabilities: “In order to be effective, auxiliary aids and services must be provided in accessible formats, in a timely manner, and in such a way as to protect the privacy and independence of the individual with a disability,” 28 C.F.R. §36.303(c)(1)(ii).

62. Part 36 of Title 28 of the C.F.R. was designed and is implemented to effectuate subtitle A of Title III of the ADA, which prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability by public accommodations, and requires places of public accommodation to be designed, constructed, and altered in compliance with the accessibility standards established by Part 36.

63. As alleged hereinabove, the Website has not been designed to interface with the widely and readily available technologies that can be used to ensure effective communication, and thus violates the ADA.

64. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant’s failure to provide an ADA compliant Website with a nexus to its brick-and-mortar stores, Plaintiff has suffered an injury in fact by being denied full access to, enjoyment of, and communication with Defendant’s Website and its physical stores.

65. Because of the inadequate development and administration of the Website, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §12133 and 28 C.F.R. §36.303, to remedy the ongoing disability discrimination.

66. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §12188, this Court is vested with the authority to grant Plaintiff appropriate and necessary injunctive relief, including an order to:

a) Require Defendant to adopt and implement a web accessibility policy to make publicly available and directly link from the homepage of the Website to a functional statement as to the Defendant’s policy to ensure persons with disabilities have full and equal access to and enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, and accommodations through the Website.

b) Require Defendant to take the necessary steps to make the Website readily accessible to and usable by blind and visually disabled users, and during that time period prior to the Website's being made readily accessible, provide an alternative method for individuals with visual disabilities to access the information available on the Website until such time that the requisite modifications are made, and

c) Require Defendant to provide the appropriate auxiliary aids such that individuals with visual disabilities will be able to effectively communicate with the Website for purposes of viewing and locating Defendant's physical stores and becoming informed of and purchasing Defendant's merchandise, and during that time period prior to the Website's being designed to permit individuals with visual disabilities to effectively communicate, to provide an alternative method for individuals with visual disabilities to effectively communicate for such goods and services made available to the general public through the Website and the physical stores.

67. Plaintiff is entitled to recover his reasonable attorney's fees, costs, and expenses pursuant to the ADA. To that end, Plaintiff has been obligated to retain the undersigned counsel for the filing and prosecution of this action and has agreed to pay them a reasonable fee for their services.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests entry of judgment in his favor and against Defendant for the following relief:

- A. A declaration that Defendant's Website is in violation of the ADA;
- B. An Order requiring Defendant, by a date certain, to update the Website, and continue to monitor and update the Website on an ongoing basis, to remove barriers in order that individuals with visual disabilities can access, and continue to access, the Website and effectively communicate with the Website to the full extent required by Title III of the ADA;

- C. An Order requiring Defendant, by a date certain, to clearly display the universal disabled logo within the Website, wherein the logo¹ would lead to a page which would state Defendant's accessibility information, facts, policies, and accommodations. Such a clear display of the disabled logo is to ensure that individuals who are disabled are aware of the availability of the accessible features of the Website;
- D. An Order requiring Defendant, by a date certain, to provide ongoing support for web accessibility by implementing a website accessibility coordinator, a website application accessibility policy, and providing for website accessibility feedback to ensure compliance thereto;
- E. An Order directing Defendant, by a date certain, to evaluate its policies, practices and procedures toward persons with disabilities, for such reasonable time to allow Defendant to undertake and complete corrective procedures to its Website;
- F. An Order directing Defendant, by a date certain, to establish a policy of web accessibility and accessibility features for the Website to ensure effective communication for individuals who are visually disabled;
- G. An Order requiring, by a date certain, that any third-party vendors who participate on Defendant's Website to be fully accessible to the visually disabled;
- H. An Order directing Defendant, by a date certain and at least once yearly thereafter, to provide mandatory web accessibility training to all employees who write or develop programs or code for, or who publish final content to, the Website on how to conform

¹ or similar.

all web content and services with ADA accessibility requirements and applicable accessibility guidelines;

- I. An Order directing Defendant, by a date certain and at least once every three months thereafter, to conduct automated accessibility tests of the Website to identify any instances where the Website is no longer in conformance with the accessibility requirements of the ADA and any applicable accessibility guidelines, and further directing Defendant to send a copy of the twelve (12) quarterly reports to Plaintiff's counsel for review;
- J. An Order directing Defendant, by a date certain, to make publicly available and directly link from the Website homepage, a statement of Defendant's Accessibility Policy to ensure the persons with disabilities have full and equal enjoyment of the Website and shall accompany the public policy statement with an accessible means of submitting accessibility questions and problems;
- K. An award to Plaintiff of her reasonable attorney's fees, costs and expenses; and
- L. Such other and further relief as the Court deems just and equitable.

COUNT II – VIOLATION OF THE PALM BEACH CODE

68. Plaintiff re-alleges paragraphs 1 through 46 and 55 through 57 as if set forth fully herein.

69. The Palm Beach Code §§15-54(b) and 15-56 provides specifically for a private right of action for any persons aggrieved by violations of the Palm Beach Code public accommodations provisions in §15-57.

70. Defendant is a public accommodation under the Palm Beach Code as defined within §15-37(10), and thus is subject to Article III, Chapter 15, §§15-37, 15-54, 15-56, and 15-57 of the Palm Beach Code.

71. Pursuant to §15-37(4)(e), the Website is covered under the Palm Beach Code because it provides the general public with the ability to locate and learn about Defendant's stores, purchase merchandise that is also available for purchase in and from the physical stores, purchase gift cards to make purchases both online and in the physical stores, arrange in-store pickups and home deliveries of in-store merchandise purchased online, and sign up for an emailer to receive exclusive online offers, benefits, invitations, and discounts for use online and in the physical stores. The Website thus is an extension of, gateway to, and intangible service, privilege, and advantage of Defendant's physical stores. Further, the Website also serves to augment Defendant's physical stores by providing the public information about the physical stores and by educating the public as to Defendant's available merchandise sold through the Website and in the physical stores.

72. Under §15-57 of the Palm Beach Code, it is "an unlawful discriminatory practice for any person, being the owner, lessee, proprietor, manager, superintendent, agent, or employee of any place of public accommodation, because of the ... disability ... of any person directly or indirectly to refuse, withhold from or deny to such person any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities or privileges thereof that are afforded the other customers, directly or indirectly." This prohibition extends to the websites of public accommodations, which, when acting as points of sale for the public accommodations, constitute accommodations, advantages, facilities, and privileges of the public accommodations.

73. Defendant's Website must comply with the Palm Beach Code, but it does not as specifically alleged hereinabove and below.

74. Because of the inaccessibility of the Website, individuals with visual disabilities are denied full and equal access to and enjoyment of the goods, information, and services that Defendant has made available to the public on the Website and in its physical stores in violation of the Palm Beach Code, specifically §15-57.

75. Defendant has violated the Palm Beach Code -- and continues to violate the Palm Beach Code -- by denying access to the Website by individuals such as Plaintiff with visual disabilities who require the assistance of interface with screen reader software to comprehend and access internet websites. These violations within the Website are ongoing.

76. The Palm Beach Code, same as the ADA, requires that public accommodations and places of public accommodation ensure that communication is effective.

77. As alleged hereinabove, the Website has not been designed to interface with the widely and readily available technologies that can be used to ensure effective communication, and thus violates the Palm Beach Code.

78. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's failure to provide a Palm Beach Code compliant website, with a nexus to its brick-and-mortar stores, Plaintiff has suffered an injury in fact by being denied full access to, enjoyment of, and communication with the Website and the physical stores.

79. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's failure to provide a Palm Beach Code compliant website, with a nexus to its brick-and-mortar stores, Plaintiff has suffered, and will continue to suffer, emotional distress, frustration, and humiliation due to the discriminatory conditions and access barriers present on the Website. By continuing to operate the Website with discriminatory conditions of which it is aware, Defendant contributes to Plaintiff's sense of isolation and segregation, and deprives Plaintiff the full and equal access to and enjoyment of Defendant's goods, services, and benefits available as are afforded the non-visually disabled, general public. By encountering the discriminatory conditions at the Website and knowing that it would be a futile gesture to attempt to utilize the Website unless he is willing to endure additional discrimination, Plaintiff is deprived of the meaningful choice to freely visit and utilize the same stores or the Website that are readily available to the non-visually disabled public and is deterred and discouraged from doing so. By maintaining the Website with access barriers and violations, Defendant deprives Plaintiff from the equal access to and same participation in and benefits from Defendant's goods and services available on the Website and in the physical stores as the non-visually disabled public.

80. Plaintiff thus has suffered and will continue to suffer direct and indirect injury as a result of Defendant's continuing discrimination until the Defendant is compelled to comply with the requirements of the Palm Beach Code.

81. Because of the inadequate and discriminatory development and administration of the Website, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief pursuant to Palm Beach Code §§15-54(h) and 15-56(d) to remedy the ongoing disability discrimination.

82. Pursuant to the Palm Beach Code §§15-54(h) and 15-56(d), this Court is vested with the authority to grant Plaintiff appropriate and necessary injunctive relief, including an order to:

a) Require Defendant to adopt and implement a web accessibility policy to make publicly available and directly link from the homepage of the Website to a functional statement as to the Defendant's policy to ensure persons with disabilities have full and equal access to and enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, and accommodations through the Website.

b) Require Defendant to take the necessary steps to make the Website readily accessible to and usable by blind and visually disabled users, and during that time period prior to the Website's being made readily accessible, provide an alternative method for individuals with visual disabilities to access the information available on the Website until such time that the requisite modifications are made, and

c) Require Defendant to provide the appropriate auxiliary aids such that individuals with visual disabilities will be able to effectively communicate with the Website for purposes of viewing and locating Defendant's physical stores and becoming informed of and purchasing Defendant's merchandise, and during that time period prior to the Website's being designed to permit individuals with visual disabilities to effectively communicate, to provide an alternative method for individuals with visual disabilities to effectively communicate for such goods and services made available to the general public through the Website and in the physical stores.

83. Plaintiff is also entitled to recover his actual and compensatory damages, reasonable attorney's fees, costs, and expenses pursuant to the Palm Beach Code, §§15-54(e) and 15-56(d). To that end, Plaintiff has been obligated to retain the undersigned counsel for the filing and prosecution of this action and has agreed to pay them a reasonable fee for their services.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests entry of judgment in his favor and against Defendant for the following relief:

- A. A declaration that Defendant's Website is in violation of the Palm Beach Code;
- B. An Order requiring Defendant, by a date certain, to update the Website, and continue to monitor and update the Website on an ongoing basis, to remove barriers in order that individuals with visual disabilities can access, and continue to access, the Website and effectively communicate with the Website to the full extent required by the Palm Beach Code;

C. An Order requiring Defendant, by a date certain, to clearly display the universal disabled logo within the Website, wherein the logo would lead to a page which would state Defendant's accessibility information, facts, policies, and accommodations. Such a clear display of the disabled logo is to ensure that individuals who are disabled are aware of the availability of the accessible features of the Website;

D. An Order requiring Defendant, by a date certain, to provide ongoing support for web accessibility by implementing a website accessibility coordinator, a website application accessibility policy, and providing for website accessibility feedback to ensure compliance thereto;

E. An Order directing Defendant, by a date certain, to evaluate its policies, practices and procedures toward persons with disabilities, for such reasonable time to allow Defendant to undertake and complete corrective procedures to its Website;

F. An Order directing Defendant, by a date certain, to establish a policy of web accessibility and accessibility features for the Website to ensure effective communication for individuals who are visually disabled;

G. An Order requiring, by a date certain, that any third-party vendors who participate on Defendant's Website to be fully accessible to the visually disabled;

H. An Order directing Defendant, by a date certain and at least once yearly thereafter, to provide mandatory web accessibility training to all employees who write or develop programs or code for, or who publish final content to, the Website on how to conform all web content and services with the Palm Beach Code accessibility requirements and applicable accessibility guidelines;

I. An Order directing Defendant, by a date certain and at least once every three months thereafter, to conduct automated accessibility tests of the Website to identify any instances where the Website is no longer in conformance with the accessibility requirements of the Palm Beach Code and any applicable accessibility guidelines, and further directing Defendant to send a copy of the twelve (12) quarterly reports to Plaintiff's counsel for review;

J. An Order directing Defendant, by a date certain, to make publicly available and directly link from the Website homepage, a statement of Defendant's Accessibility Policy to ensure the persons with disabilities have full and equal enjoyment of the Website and shall accompany the public policy statement with an accessible means of submitting accessibility questions and problems;

K. An award to Plaintiff of all his actual and compensatory damages as allowed by the Palm Beach Code, §§15-54(e) and 15-56(d);

L. An award to Plaintiff of her reasonable attorney's fees, costs and expenses as allowed by the Palm Beach Code, §15-56(d); and

M. Such other and further relief as the Court deems just and equitable.

DATED: July 14th, 2022.

RODERICK V. HANNAH, ESQ., P.A.

Counsel for Plaintiff
4800 N. Hiatus Road
Sunrise, FL 33351
T. 954/362-3800
954/362-3779 (Facsimile)
Email: rhannah@rhannahlaw.com

LAW OFFICE OF PELAYO DURAN, P.A.

Co-Counsel for Plaintiff
4640 N.W. 7th Street
Miami, FL 33126-2309
T. 305/266-9780
305/269-8311 (Facsimile)
Email: duranandassociates@gmail.com

By: s/ Roderick V. Hannah
RODERICK V. HANNAH
Fla. Bar No. 435384

By: s/ Pelayo M. Duran
PELAYO M. DURAN
Fla. Bar No. 0146595